

Children's Rights

1. The right to equality

No child should be disadvantaged.

Children have the right to lead a healthy life, to feel secure and not to suffer hardship.

2. The right to health

Children

have the right to learn and to receive an education that is suited to their abilities.

3. The right to education parental care Children have the right to the love and care of both parents and a secure home.

4. The right to

5. The right to privacy and dignity

Children have the right to expect that their private lives and their dignity will be respected.

6. The right to freedom of opinion, access to information and the opportunity to be listened to Children have the right to help determine matters that affect them and to say what they think. They have the right to gather all the information they need for such a purpose and to express their opinions

7. The right to protection in times of war and political upheaval

Children

have the right to be protected during times of war and political instability.

8. The right to be protected from exploitation, abuse and violence

Children have the right to be protected from violence, abuse and exploitation.

9. The right to play, leisure, quiet and culture

Children have the right to recreation, recuperation and artistic pursuits.

10. The right to assistance with disabilities

Children suffering a disability have the right to special care and furtherance so that they can lead an active life.

